

Inter-Professional Clinical Trauma Webinar

Educationally cosponsored by Dalhousie University Continuing Professional Development

September 26th, 2023 - 1200-1300

Ethical Decision Making at the Bedside in Trauma Care

Presenter: Dr. Francis Bakewell

Learning Objectives:

1. Explain the ethical principles of consent and their application in trauma care scenarios, including emergency exceptions.
2. Analyze the concept of capacity in the context of trauma care and determine how it influences decision-making processes.
3. Evaluate the ethical implications of treatment refusal in trauma care, considering patient autonomy and the healthcare professional's duty to provide care.
4. Assess the role and responsibilities of substitute decision-makers in trauma care situations.
5. Summarize the importance of advance directives in trauma care and the ethical considerations involved in their implementation.
6. Reflect on personal and professional biases that may influence ethical decision-making at the bedside in trauma care.
7. Develop a comprehensive understanding of the ethical obligations and responsibilities of healthcare professionals in trauma care, ensuring patient-centered care and respect for individual autonomy

Register for this Webinar presentation at <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/rt/1024359342172250206>

This one-credit-per-hour Group Learning program meets the certification criteria of the College of Family Physicians of Canada and has been certified by the Continuing Professional Development Office of Dalhousie University for up to 1.0 Mainpro+ credits.

As an accredited provider, Dalhousie University, CPD, designates this continuing professional development activity for up to 1.0 credit hours as an accredited group learning Section 1 activity as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.

"In keeping with CMA Guidelines, program content and selection of speakers are the responsibility of the planning committee. Support is directed toward the costs of the course and not to individual speakers through an unrestricted educational grant."